

KATHERINE TRACEY

Katherine is an avid horse enthusiast of many years, with the deep respect and appreciation for dressage. She began her riding career at the tender age of four, when she watched her mother's riding lesson with Kathy Conolly and was immediately hooked!

Katherine participated in the local Pony Club organization for several years, and later went on to become a full-time riding instructor and trainer at multiple local farms. She has worked with many well-known Dressage trainers, such as Karl Mikolka, Arthur Kottas, and Lars Petersen, just to name a few.

Katherine has many years' experience working with students ranging in age from 5-75. She is also versatile, having experience teaching multiple disciplines including dressage, western pleasure and beginner level jumping. Her positive enthusiasm inspires confidence in even the most timid riders, and her passion for teaching shines through in every lesson.
